

*Gordonsville's
Visitor Center
Monthly Report – April, 2023*

Number of Visitors for April 2023 as compared to April 2022. Continued to see strong number coming from Bluegreen Resorts. Several “just passing through and deciding to stop”. Well Hung, BBQEX, Exchange Hotel, Jackson and Company Market, and Downtown drew visitors. Champion Ice House and Patch Brewery drew folks. Hiking and antiques drew visitors. Area wineries drew visitors. Montpelier and Monticello drew visitors. Market at Grelen drew folks. Spring break continued to bring folks to the area. Horseback riding drew interest. Saw folks from Massanutten resort come visit. Folks looking for historical sites. John’s Dogs drew folks. Several tour busses stopped in. Gordonsville on Main drew visitors.

Position Vacancies: Zero

Events/Community Involvement:

- Regular merchant check-ins
- Worked with Orange Tourism Assistant Director
- Gordonsville on Main's Spring Market held
- Maintained contact with Blue Green Resorts Marketing Staff
- Supported Orange Chamber's Uncorked Wine Festival
- Supported Oakland Heights Farm's PRB rodeo series beginning in May
- Worked with Atha Yoga on their grand opening
- Supported Market at Grelen
- Supported Cub Scout Aviation Day
- Met with Louisa County Tourism Director
- Initial support to Liberty Mills Farm's Strawberry Festival
- Supported Friends of the Wilderness Battlefield
- Supported Historic Garden Week
- Met with Culpeper's Travel Specialist
- Continued work on Gordonsville Walking Tour
- Maintained contact with both Madison and Greene County Visitor Centers
- Continued to support Montpelier and Monticello
- Supported activities at James Madison Museum
- Work on Fried Chicken Festival and Races continued
- John's Hot Dogs opened for the season

Revenue:

- Visitor Donations = $ 20
Total: $ 20

Respectfully Submitted by,

David H. Solomon
Visitor Center Director