BACKGROUND:

The Monticello District Cub Scouts would like to again have Cub Scout Aviation Day at Gordonsville Municipal Airport, with this year's event scheduled for April 22-23, 2023. The first such event, held in April 2018, was successful and well-attended. Again this year, there will be overnight camping for those interested. The event is being coordinated through the local scout council.

The parent of each scout and all adults who will be on the property will sign a waiver for the use of the property should it be authorized by Council.

Daman Irby, Cub Master and Aviation Day Coordinator, will attend Council's meeting to answer any questions about the event.

MOTION FOR CONSIDERATION:

"Motion to authorize the Monticello District Cub Scouts to hold Cub Scout Aviation Day at Gordonsville Municipal Airport on April 22-23, 2023."
